ROD RUSH

ACCOUNT MANAGER

“

I thrive when it comes down to delivering a solution when it matters most.

Rod has amassed over 30 years experience in the glass industry and is committed to forming trusted, mutually beneficial client relationships and providing excellent customer service.

Rod got his start in the glass industry as sales representative with Oliver Davey Glass, later moving to Pilkington Glass where he was the product manager for toughened glass, laminated glass and mirror products. In 2002, Rod joined the team at Alternative Glass, which we know today as Solos Glass.

Rod utilises his extensive industry knowledge to deliver on projects with a strong customer focus and ensures his clients' needs are the primary focus.

Rod is known for his cheeky sense of humour and his love of his treasured Harley Davidson motorcycle. He is a proud father to two adult children and lists them as his single greatest achievement.
